

IN THE MATTER OF Certain Powers of Attorney from Valentin Nikityuk and Alla Nikityuk to Svetlana Danilova

AFFIDAVIT

I, Aurika Karasseva, of the City of Toronto, MAKE OATH AND SAY AS FOLLOWS:

1. I have been an Immigration Consultant in Canada since .
2. I practice at 2200 – 4950 Yonge Street, Toronto, Ontario M2N 6K1.
3. I am fluent in the Russian and English languages.
4. On September 15, 2009, Valentin Nikityuk and Alla Nikityuk attended at my office with Power of Attorney documents that had been prepared by someone other than myself.
5. I was asked to translate the Power of Attorney documents to Mr and Mrs. Nikityuk and to act as a witness to their signatures of the documents. I planned to asked an associate of mine, Mira Trakht, who is also fluent in the Russian and English languages, to act as the other witness, but when she was not available, I asked Edward Merifield, a lawyer who acts out of the same location, to act as the other witness.
6. Before Mr. and Mrs. Nikityuk signed their Powers of Attorney, I verified their identity, translated the entire documents to them, and satisfied myself that they fully understood what it was that they were signing.
